Lioness Club Plans Picnic At City Park

Lioness Club members and their families will gather at Torrance City Park Tuesday, July 20 at 7 o'clock for a pot luck picnic.

COLORADOAN VISITS

Miss La Veta Trezise, of Golden, Colo., arrived Thursday to spend the balance of the summer visiting her aunt, Mrs. Irma Thezise at 2019 Arlington ave.

Paintings, Watercolors To Be Shown at Cabrillo Hall

Art enthusiasts, particularly lovers of watercolors and oils of landscapes, portraits and floral arrangements, will be interested in the latest offering of Cabrillo Beach recreation hall.

Extending through July 24 is an exhibition of 40 paintings and watercolors by Misses Aurelia Ried and Mabel Cory. This is the second annual exhibition of the artists, and is an independent exhibition. Hours of the show are 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily.

Miss Cory, librarian at Palos Verdes college, is a member of San Pedro Art Association, the Art Patrons and Writer's guild. Miss Ried, also a member of the Art Association, has exhibited in Philadelphia and New York. Both artists will be at the hall during the afternoons to explain their work.

There is no charge for the exhibition which is in keeping with the Cabrillo Beach recreation hall's policy of continuous culture features and art exhibitions throughout the summer.

J. B. Johnson Family To Be Honored by Church Group Tonight

Members and families of the Loyal Builders class of Methodist church school will attend a picnic at 6:30 tonight in Torrance City Park.

The affair will honor Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnson and their son Eldred, of 1806 Madrid ave., who leave this week for their home in Carrollton, Ohio, following a year's residence here. Johnson served as construction engineer for Swindell, Dressler Corporation of Pittsburgh, Pa., installing tunnel kilns at American Standard Radiator Corporation here.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE

Mrs. Fern Springer, 5405 Carol drive, Seaside Ranchos, attended the three-week conference on Elementary Supervision at University of California at Los Angeles.

Gold Star Mothers Hear of Convention at Recent Meeting

Torrance Chapter, Gold Star Mothers of America, met Wednesday afternoon of last week in Torrance Woman's clubhouse, Mrs. Anna Held, president, conducted the meeting.

As soon as all necessary business was disposed of, detailed reports of the recent national convention of Gold Star Mothers, held in Atlantic City, N. J., were given by Mrs. Held and Mrs. Violet Brooks, who were delegates from Torrance Chapter. They gave most interesting accounts of the trip which included stops at New Orleans, Washington, D.C., New York City. They also told of their attendance at the Memorial Day services at Arlington National Cemetery. Outstanding among many benefits for veterans made possible by the Gold Star Mothers was the purchase of three iron lungs and 100 wheel chairs for use in veterans' hospitals.

One of the highlights of the convention was the honoring of Mrs. Walter Boyd of Long Beach, when she was again elected to the office of national president of the organization. She previously served as president from June, 1946, to June, 1947, and was the organizer of the home for Gold Star Mothers, plans for which are now being completed.

The next meeting of Torrance Chapter will be held at 8 p.m., July 20, in the American Legion Hall in Redondo Beach. All Gold Star mothers are cordially invited to attend.

Tea Honors Senior Members of Local Church

Senior members of Community Presbyterian church and their friends were guests of honor at an afternoon tea given by the deacons of the church at the home of Mrs. J. H. Armstrong, 24709 Woodward avenue, Thursday afternoon, July 15.

Tea was served at a long, lace-covered table, centered with a large bouquet of gladiolus and cosmos in delicate shades. Each of the ladies was presented with a corsage, and each gentleman was given a boutonniere.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and an impromptu musical program was presented by several of the guests.

Catholic Ladies Complete Plans for Card Party

Mrs. Cyril Weber and her committee will have charge of this evening's Catholic card party. Assisting hostesses are Mesdames Zienke, Goodson, Ban Cooper, Nady, Zupparde, Holley, Misitz, Gilbert, Powell, Atkin, Babbit, DeGutes and the Misses Mary Bray and Marie Leininger.

The first door prize will be awarded at 8 o'clock and games of contract and auction, pinocle and 500, will follow. At the close of play delicious refreshments will be served with hot coffee and tea. Everyone is cordially invited.

Popular Couple Are Honored at Prenuptial Shower

On Saturday evening, Miss Phaidor Randall, of Burbank and her fiance, Mr. Clifford M. Trezise, of this city, were honored at a miscellaneous pre-nuptial shower given by Mrs. Adrian Cote, aunt of the bride-elect, at Inglewood.

Fifty guests were present to honor the young couple who plan to be married at Ellendale, Minnesota, on Sept. 15.

Catholic Daughters Report Variety of Current Affairs

Members of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, have had an unusually busy week, activities including the national convention of CDA at the Huntington Hotel in Pasadena, and regular business and executive board meetings.

Two past Grand Regents of the Court, Mrs. Clare Farrell and Mrs. Frances Forester, were among the hostesses for a reception honoring Supreme Regent Mary C. Duffey of South Orange, New Jersey, Sunday evening at the Huntington Hotel in Pasadena. The reception, given by the Past Grand Regents Association of Southern California, marked the opening of the National CDA convention. Also in attendance from the local court were Grand Regent Edith Owen, the Misses Opal Yorkner, Rosa and Katherine Ortmann, and Mesdames Muriel Gately, Hazel Hutton, Theresa Murray, Evelyn O'Hara, and District Deputy Lucy Greaves of Redondo Beach.

A party of five from the local Court have reservations for the noon luncheon today at the Huntington, and will attend the afternoon session: Grand Regent Edith Owen, the Misses Ortmann, Mesdames Frances Forester and Clare Farrell.

Symphonies Under Stars Opens For 27th Season

Under the direction of Eugene Ormandy, the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra of 100 musicians opened the Symphonies Under the Stars Tuesday night in the Bowl to a promising 27th season. Popular John Charles Thomas, baritone, was soloist.

The orchestra, which is comprised mostly of members of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, will be enlarged to 125 persons for the first western performance of the Mahler 8th Symphony of the Thousand planned for July 29. Sascha Jacobson is concertmaster.

Lucine Amara, soprano, and Robert Applestone, baritone, will be featured artists at the annual Gershwin concert, Saturday night. He will play the Concert in F and the Rhapsody in Blue.

Leith Stevens will conduct Cuban Overture, American in Paris and the orchestral arrangement of Porgy and Bess.
